We, the senior class of 1943, dedicate this annual to the former graduates of our school who are now serving, or who have served, in the armed forces of our country in this war.

We do this in appreciation of the service they are rendering in this great war to preserve Democracy.

P E O P L E

Mr. Ewart has taught for eleven years in the DeMotte School, and during the last four years he has served as school principal.

SENIORS 1943

SENIOR HISTORY

In September of 1939, twenty-four freshmen entered DeMotte High School to increase their knowledge.

During our first year we were guided by Mr. Ely. Our class officers were Cordelia Kooy, president; Helen Bailey, vice-president; Alice Sytsma, secretary; and Dale Schwanke, treasurer. We chose old rose and silver as our class colors and "We Build The Ladder By Which We Rise" as our motto.

On the night of September 29, we were duly initiated by the seniors.

We had a roller skating party on October 13.

The next fall twenty-two members enrolled. This year we chose Miss Keever to be our sponsor. Our officers became as follows: William Hoffman, president; Dale Schwanke, vice-president; Alice Sytsma, secretary; Ruth Moolenaar, treasurer.

In October we invited the juniors to join us in a skating party. OUCH!

This fall, 1940, the Junior class elected Rose Schlarp as president, Cordelia Kooy as vice-president and Delpha Heimlich as secretary. We retained our sponsor, Miss Keever. Our class was greatly decreased in number.

We gave a skating party early in the fall.

We gave the sensation of the year, "The Campbells Are Coming," on March 17.

Towards the spring we received our class rings.

In the spring we gave the Seniors a banquet.

When we returned this fall our class was more decreased in number than last year with thirteen members and by December two had dropped out. In January Bertha Vander Molen joined our group.

On November 24, we presented "Aunt Abby Answers An Ad."

We are now working on the eighth edition of the Keen Keener.

S E N I O R

To write a poem is a task for me,
For I'm not a poet as you can plainly see.
But I'll do my best to describe our class to you,
And I hope you won't be bored before you've read this through.

The first of our class is Anne Klip,
And to everyone I'll give this tip:
She's popular and full of fun,
But wait! She's not the only one.

Next on the list is Cordelia Kooy,
She's left her heart with a Senior boy. (?)
She'd make a fine wife for some young lad,
For a better seamstress couldn't be had.

Then comes the treasurer who collects the money,
Dale's his name but who's his honey?
When it comes to Civics he's not so dumb,
And we value him greatly as our school chum.

Alice Sytsma is a girl you know.
In our Girl's chorus she sings alto.
She's tall, slender, and somewhat shy,
And seems to think Civics is rather dry.

Then comes Bernice who's rather tall,
When it comes to studying she beats us all.
She's quite attractive and a medium blonde,
Of her our class is very fond.

Oh, here comes another, Delpha's her name,
As a dress designer she hopes to find fame.
She serves our group as a president,
And Ted is the name of her favorite gent.

Next is William, we call him "Bill"
A better tonic than any pill,
A number of girls have found that it's true.
So—naturally his lady-friends aren't so few.

P O E M

In the month of December, of this year,
A classmate, Alice Hansen, moved away from here.
But Alice is a girl we can't forget,
And her absence is something we all regret.

The hardest poem for me to write,
Is about a girl whose hair is light.
She's not much of a poet, as you can see,
Oh yes, you guessed it, it's only me.

Our shortest girl is five feet three,
And in her studies she's smart as can be.
Her name is Hazel and she's rather blonde,
But who's that boy of whom she's fond?

Walter Mak, our class Romeo,
Keeps all the girls on the go.
Anne always greets him with a happy "hello,"
Now what are her intentions? Does anyone know?

We inherited Bertha from the Junior Class,
And we're proud to claim this brilliant lass.
She deserves to be praised for the grades she's made,
And to lead the line in the honor parade.

There's one who's cheery laughter brightens the day,
When she's around, skies are never gray.
Her first name is Florence, her last name you know.
She makes many friends wherever she goes.

Mr. Stephens sponsors our class,
It would never do to let him pass.
We like him a lot, and why shouldn't we?
He's everything we want a teacher to be.

And now as we leave good old DeMotte High,
We take one more look and utter a sigh.
So many fond memories we now can recall,
But now we'll just say, "goodbye one and all."

SENIOR WILL

- Ruth Moolenaar wills her glasses to Carolyn Bass. Now with two pairs of glasses, Carolyn can see all the boys Ruth overlooked.
- Delpha Heimlich wills her expanded vocabulary to John Mac and Bernard Vander Molen. May they make as much use of it as Delpha has.
- Cordelia Kooy wills her marvelous home cooking talent to Lois Lagavcen. May she reach a man's heart through his stomach as Cordelia did.
- Bertha Vander Molen wills her ability to type to Dick Evans. May he reach the high degree of success that Bertha attained.
- Dale Schwanke leaves his mannerly ways to Charlie Streveler. May he appreciate something good when he gets it.
- Bernice Vander Ploeg wills her ability to sing loudly to Mary Lou Ewart. Let's hope you hear more of Mary Lou's singing that we did of Bernice's.
- Alice Sytsma wills a "steady" to Bob Anderson. Bob, if you find a good one, hold onto her!
- Hazel Punter wills her conscientious studying to Steve Terpstra. Here's hoping you get as good grades in your Senior year as Hazel did.
- Walter Mak wills his height to Sig Boezeman and Paul Hoffman. Well, boys, I hope you won't have as many neck-aches as I have had.
- Florence Hoffman wills her bright sayings to Sam Kingma. May we hear from him as often as we did from Florence.
- Anne Klip wills her attractiveness to Mary Jane White. May you have as many friends as Anne has had.
- Bill Hoffman wills his "gentleness" and "honeyed persuasion" to Don Bailey and Gerrit Van Kepple. Here's hoping you have more success than Bill had.
- To the school as a whole we will a larger senior class, but then valuable things are sometimes wrapped up in small packages.

TO THE TEACHERS

- To Mr. Ewart—A set of venetian blinds for the Civics room
- To Mr. Stephens—A state championship basketball team, a good football team too.
- To Mrs. Murphy—An assembly that keeps quiet and studies.
- To Miss Venable—Senior students who know their Math.
- To Mrs. Rainwater—A class of boys who know how to sing.
- To Mrs. Cook—A fruit and vegetable and meat market, so that she can get her vitamins daily.
- To Mr. Wurzbarger—Agriculture boys who come to class.

PROPHECY OF CLASS OF '43

Ho hum, am I tired, but I really must write the good news I had today in my diary! The most wonderful thing happened.

Dear Diary,

March 13, 1963.

Today as I was working at the information desk in Grand Central Station, Miss Hazel Punter, one of Hollywood's famous singers, got a ticket to New York. There she will be starred with Dale Schwanke's "Schwanke's Swanky Swingsters" on a radio broadcast.

Later:

May 30, 1963.

Today Mr. William Hoffman stopped a moment when he got his ticket to New Orleans. He says he likes his work as a lawyer. His great success is evident.

July 17, 1963.

One of Chicago's wealthiest business men came in today with his blushing bride. She has been his private secretary for quite some time. Bernice and her husband are planning on spending a few weeks at Niagara Falls.

July 30, 1963.

At last, my vacation time! I went over to see my old chum Mice Sytsma who owns a cozy little beauty shop a few blocks from where I work. She accepted my plan of accompanying me to the north woods for a rest.

August 4, 1963.

We nearly missed our train, which has an appropriate name—Lightning. We were greatly surprised to meet Miss Florence Hoffman, working as stewardess.

August 5, 1963.

Today we stopped in a small mining town along our way. Down the street we saw what we thought was "Mutt and Jeff," but when they approached we found them to be Mr. Walter Mak and Walt Jr. He told us we must come see his wife, the former Miss Ruth Moole-naar. Our visit with the Maks added zest to our journey.

August 10, 1963.

We are now settled in our little cabin near the lake. We visited a lumber camp this afternoon. To our great surprise we found Miss Delpha Heimlich working in her little "Sweet Shop" in the village at the edge of the camp. Miss Delpha told us she is married and keeps a little cabin besides running the shop.

September 12, 1963.

My what a toothache I have! It must be from the exposure of those cold winds at the lake. I'll have to go to that well-known dentist—Dr. Anne Klip and see what can be done.

FOOTBALL

1st Row (left to right)—D. Evans, L. DeKock, D. Henrichs.

2nd Row — B. Anderson, P. Hoffman, S. Boezeman.

Standing — B. Hoffmen (mgr.), C. Barker, R. Anderson, J. Ruissard, C. Streveler, J. Walstra, C. Stephens (coach).

FOOTBALL

The football team of 1942 did not reach the peak of greatness. Graduation had left the squad riddled; Boezeman, Bernard, Zeck, Schoonveld, Osting, Oliver were gone. In their place were DeKock, Henrichs, Anderson, Boezeman, Hoffman and Evans. Something of a record was set—that of scoring at least one touchdown in every game. But in the won and lost column 1 victory in 6 games was not so good. However, as there were no seniors on the squad, and all the boys will be back next year with much needed experience—opponents of 1943 look out.

Standing—S. Boezeman, P. Hoffman, W. Mak, B. Anderson, D. Evans, C. Stephens (coach).

BASKETBALL

This year's varsity team was composed of last season's second stringers. They lost several close games, lost several games by rather wide margins, and won a couple. Since only one regular and one substitute graduates, prospects for avenging that dismal season is bright.

Anderson led the scoring parade with Walt Mak coming in second.

TRACK

Last spring's track team defeated Wheatfield and Fair Oaks in a triangular meet. They finished ahead of Crown Point 69 to 61 in a dual meet. In the Kankakee Valley Track Meet, they finished third with 49½ points. Wheatfield won the meet with 60 points, and Mt. Ayr came in second with 50 earned points.

As in basketball and football practically all veteran material was gone. However, every boy can run and jump and throw. And who knows? Perhaps we might find another Owens, or Warmerdam, or Cunningham in our midst.

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL

Standing — W. White, D. Swart, J. Ruissard, R. Murrida, C. Stephens (coach), J. Fieldhouse, C. Swart, P. Stevenson, J. Boezeman.

The second team won over half of its games this year and will probably all be back on the second team squad next year.

The scoring on the second team was evenly distributed among the members of the starting five.
